Bust

Measure the fullest part of your bust. ☐ Keep your arms down by your side.

Waist

Measure the narrowest part of your natural waistline. You will find it above your navel and below your ribcage.

Hip

Measure the fullest part of your natural hipline.

Size Comparison

Compare the measurements of our items with ☐ your own to help you decide which size to buy.

General Notes

We recommend going up a size for bodices and bustiers as they are structured to help support the garment and so fit tighter. Other garments are intended to be worn oversized and have a squarer fit – sizing down in these will give a more tailored fit. Buying a size up will not affect the length of a garment.
